MY HOMESCHOOL

The Cock and the Jewel

A cock, scratching for food for himself and his hens, found a precious stone and exclaimed: "If your owner had found thee, and not I, he would have taken thee up, and have set thee in thy first estate; but I have found thee for no purpose. I would rather have one barleycorn than all the jewels in the world.

The Traveller and His Dog

A traveller about to set out on a journey saw his dog stand at the door stretching himself. He asked him sharply: "Why do you stand there gaping? Everything is ready for you, so come with me instantly."

The dog, wagging his tail, replied:

"O, Master! I am quite ready; it is you for whom I am waiting."

The loiterer often blames delay on his more active friend.
